

Aloha from the OahuMPO staff!
We hope you had a restful holiday and are keeping safe!

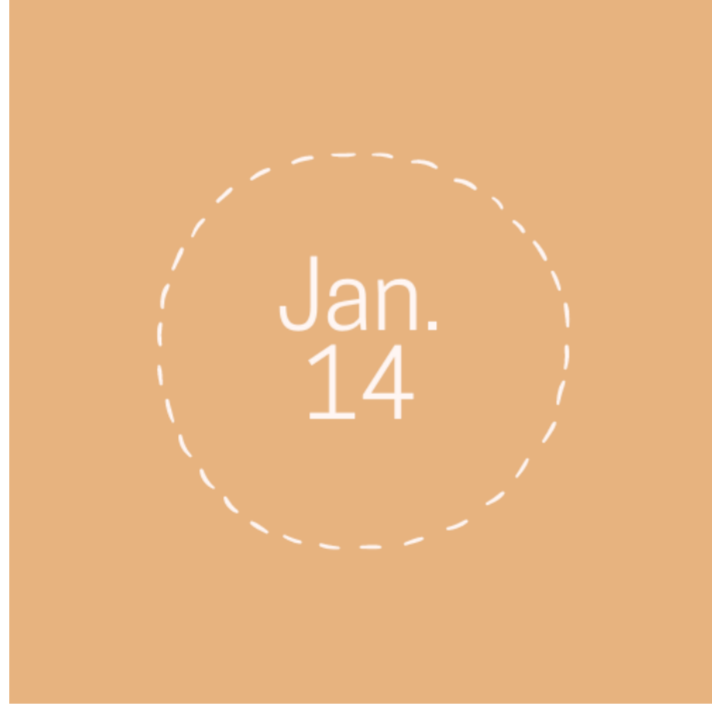

OahuMPO welcomed a new Executive Director, Mark Garrity, to the staff in January 2022. Mr. Garrity is a certified urban planner with 30 years of professional experience in executive leadership and project management in urban planning, transportation, transit operations, contract negotiation and oversight, environmental analysis and design. The OahuMPO staff looks forward to working under the guidance of Mr. Garrity!

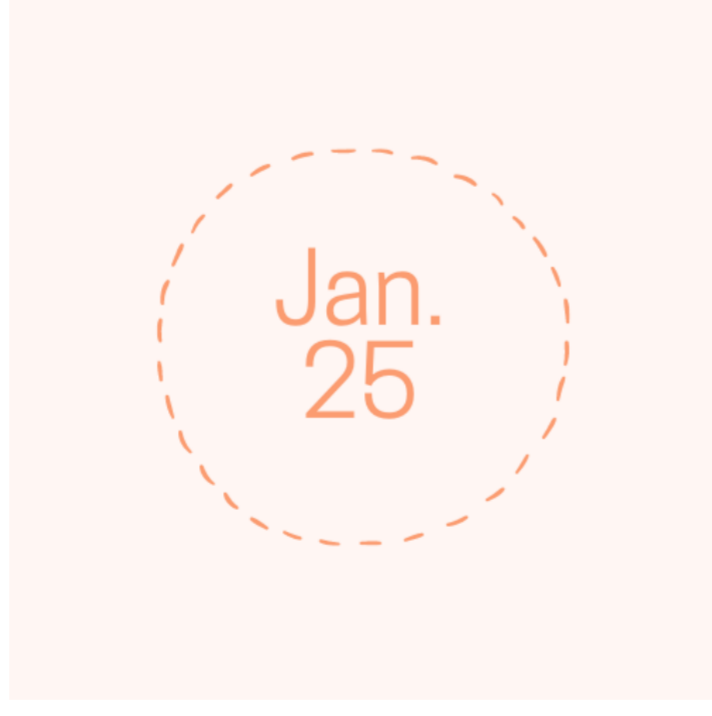

Agendas for the committee meetings can be found at www.oahumpo.org. For your information, the January 1st Sunshine Law requirement that all public meetings have at least one in-person mandatory site has been postponed to February 28, 2022. The OahuMPO will update the community if/when this changes.
